

Scrutiny of documents coming from the European Union and monitoring compliance with the principle of subsidiarity

The Senate of the Parliament of the Czech Republic

| Date | Responsible body or unit | Description of the procedure |
|---|--|--|
| Day 1 | Transmission to the Senate by Commission or Council Received by the Senate (EU Affairs Unit) | Direct transmission of the EU legislative proposals (and other EU documents) to the Senate, in accordance with Article 1 and 2 of Protocol No. 1 of the Lisbon Treaty. |
| Week following the transmission | EU Affairs Unit | Proposals are listed in weekly overview of EU documents received by the Senate during previous week. |
| | EU Affairs Unit | Weekly overview of EU documents is sent to all senators and other interested recipients. |
| | Head of EU Affairs Unit + advisor to Committee on European Affairs + Chairman of the Committee on European Affairs | Head of EU Affairs Unit and the advisor meet with Chairman of the Committee to discuss the EU documents from weekly overview (this discussion also covers the compliance of proposals with principle of subsidiarity). Chairman of the Committee then recommends to the Committee whether to scrutinize the proposal or not. |
| First meeting of the Committee on European Affairs after the transmission of proposal | Committee on European Affairs | The proposal is selected for scrutiny if majority of the Committee members approve the recommendation of the Chairman of the Committee. Subsequently, the rapporteur is appointed. Committee can also ask a specialized committee for opinion on particular proposal. |
| After selection for scrutiny | Office of the government or a responsible ministry | Draws up Explanatory Memorandum on the proposal and submits it to the Senate (approx. 10 days' deadline) |
| | EU Affairs Unit | Responsible expert of EU Unit prepares a thorough analysis of the scrutinised proposal. |
| | Committee rapporteur + advisor to Committee on European Affairs + EU Affairs Unit | The Committee rapporteur (with assistance of advisor to the Committee and expert from EU Affairs Unit) drafts a resolution on the proposal, including the evaluation whether the proposal is in compliance with principle of subsidiarity. In case the breach of subsidiarity principle is found, a reasoned opinion is drafted. |
