

Mr Donald Tusk
President
European Council

01.12.2017 nr 3-8/17-17/63

Dear Mr Tusk,

Following the recent plenary meeting of the LVIII COSAC, which was held in Tallinn from 26 November to 28 November, in the framework of the Parliamentary dimension of the Estonian Presidency of the Council of the European Union, please find enclosed the adopted COSAC Contribution and Conclusions.

In the Contribution, COSAC addresses several topics which were discussed during the meeting, such as the future of the EU, Brexit, bringing the EU closer to its citizens, Digital Single Market and e-services, Security Union and irregular migration.

In the Conclusions COSAC addresses the 28th Bi-annual Report of COSAC, the appointment of a new Permanent Member of the COSAC Secretariat, cooperation between the IPEX platform and the COSAC web-page and the Task Force on Subsidiarity, Proportionality and "Doing Less More Efficiently". In regard to the Task Force, the Presidential Troika will send an additional letter to the President of the European Commission in due course.

We would be grateful for your response to the issues emphasised in the Contribution and Conclusions.

Yours sincerely,

Toomas Vitsut
Chairman
EU Affairs Committee

Mr Jean-Claude Juncker
President
European Commission

01.12.2017 nr 3-8/17-17/63

Dear Mr Juncker,

Following the recent plenary meeting of the LVIII COSAC, which was held in Tallinn from 26 November to 28 November, in the framework of the Parliamentary dimension of the Estonian Presidency of the Council of the European Union, please find enclosed the adopted COSAC Contribution and Conclusions.

In the Contribution, COSAC addresses several topics which were discussed during the meeting, such as the future of the EU, Brexit, bringing the EU closer to its citizens, Digital Single Market and e-services, Security Union and irregular migration.

In the Conclusions COSAC addresses the 28th Bi-annual Report of COSAC, the appointment of a new Permanent Member of the COSAC Secretariat, cooperation between the IPEX platform and the COSAC web-page and the Task Force on Subsidiarity, Proportionality and "Doing Less More Efficiently". In regard to the Task Force, the Presidential Troika will send an additional letter to the President of the European Commission in due course.

We would be grateful for your response to the issues emphasised in the Contribution and Conclusions.

Yours sincerely,

Toomas Vitsut
Chairman
EU Affairs Committee

Mr Antonio Tajani
President
European Parliament

01.12.2017 nr 3-8/17-17/63

Dear Mr Tajani,

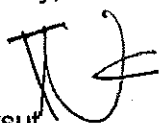

Following the recent plenary meeting of the LVIII COSAC, which was held in Tallinn from 26 November to 28 November, in the framework of the Parliamentary dimension of the Estonian Presidency of the Council of the European Union, please find enclosed the adopted COSAC Contribution and Conclusions.

In the Contribution, COSAC addresses several topics which were discussed during the meeting, such as the future of the EU, Brexit, bringing the EU closer to its citizens, Digital Single Market and e-services, Security Union and irregular migration.

In the Conclusions COSAC addresses the 28th Bi-annual Report of COSAC, the appointment of a new Permanent Member of the COSAC Secretariat, cooperation between the IPEX platform and the COSAC web-page and the Task Force on Subsidiarity, Proportionality and "Doing Less More Efficiently". In regard to the Task Force, the Presidential Troika will send an additional letter to the President of the European Commission in due course.

We would be grateful for your response to the issues emphasised in the Contribution and Conclusions.

Yours sincerely,

Toomas Vitsut
Chairman
EU Affairs Committee