Furthermore COSAC expressed its support for the Commission's plan to launch a comprehensive set of new proposals for priority actions before the end of 2012. The Contribution also encourages Member States to put particular emphasis on timely transposition of Single Market rules and continued efforts to improve the transposition and enforcement of Single Market Rules.

In addition I am writing to you to thank you for the Commission's commitment to further strengthen the political dialogue with national parliaments in particular on the substance of issues related to the new closer economic cooperation within the European Semester.

Please find enclosed the Contribution adopted by the COSAC plenary to which we would appreciate a reply.

Yours sincerely
