Dear Colleagues,

I would like to inform you that I had the honour to host the 5th meeting of the European Affairs Committees of the national parliaments of the Czech Republic, Hungary, Poland and Slovakia, which was held in Cracow from 14th January 2007 to 16th January 2007.

The purpose of the meeting was to discuss questions of our common interest, such as the Commission's Legislative and Work Programme for 2007, EU relations with Russia and the European external Energy Policy. Moreover, I had invited a representation of the European Integration Committee of the National Council of Ukraine. They joined the working meeting in order to take part in the discussion on Eastern Dimension of the EU Neighbourhood Policy.

It gives me great pleasure to inform you that the representatives of European Union Affairs Committees of the national parliaments of the Visegrad Group Countries, participating in the 5th meeting, issued a common statement summarising the conclusions reached during the meeting. It has been decided that the statement will be sent to the COSAC Presidency. I would hereby like to provide you with the statement with a kind request to have it distributed during the meeting of the COSAC Chairpersons and the Troika which is scheduled on 12th February, 2007, in Berlin.

I am deeply convinced that our exchange of views and experiences will be an important contribution to the discussion about the shape and future of the European Union.

Yours sincerely,

K. Karski

Statement of the 5th meeting of the European Union Affairs Committees of the national parliaments of the Visegrad Group Countries

Kraków, 15-16 January 2007

The V4 European affairs committees (EAC) welcome the recent enlargement of the EU and the membership of Bulgaria and Romania from 1st January 2007.

The V4 EAC welcome the participation of the delegation of the Senate of the Czech Republic and the delegation of the Senate of the Republic of Poland in the Meeting.

The European affairs committees of the Chamber of Deputies of the Czech Republic, the Senate of the Czech Republic, the Hungarian National Assembly, the Sejm of the Republic of Poland, the Senate of the Republic of Poland and the Slovak National Council jointly state that:

- unilateral trade restrictions should not be used for political aims, emphasising the need for solidarity among European Union Member States themselves and vis-a-vis third countries;
- the EU affairs committees of the Visegrad Countries encourage the Member States to manage the Eastern Dimension of the European Neighbourhood Policy in much more united way in order to achieve stability, prosperity and democracy in the neighbouring countries and call on the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine to speed up reforms to ensure the European perspective of the country;
- they emphasise the necessity of strong and long-term engagement of the EU in the cooperation with Ukraine, taking into account the role of this country in creating the stability and security in the region;
- considering the entrance of our Member States into the Schengen Area, the V4 EAC call on the European Commission and the Council to enable the lower visa cost policy for the citizens of the neighbouring countries including the citizens of Belarus and the Balkans in order to contribute to the openness and democratisation of their societies;
- express their deep concerns about the Georgian-Russian relations due to the recent developments, call upon the European Parliament, COSAC and the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe to conduct a debate without any delay and to present proposals to both countries in order to relaunch bilateral discussions on all levels;
- the Common European Energy Policy is more effective than individual actions of Member States and the new proposals of the European Commission will be examined carefully;
- welcome the efforts of Croatia in complying with the requirements of the EU membership and notwithstanding the outcome of the European debate on the Constitutional Treaty, urge Member States to seek an institutional solution needed to enlarge the EU by admitting new Member States, especially Croatia;
- call on committees to continue the subsidiarity check concerning individual legislative proposals and encourage the EU Presidency to foster the coordinatory role of the COSAC in order to enhance the capacity of parliamentary scrutiny in the Member States.

The participants authorize the Chairman of the European Union Affairs Committee of the Sejm to forward the statement to the President of the European Parliament, the Chairman of the Presidency of the COSAC and the President of the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe, as well as the Heads of the national and political party delegations in all mentioned parliamentary bodies.

Aiming at further development of the cooperation between respective European affairs committees of the Czech Republic, Hungary, Poland and Slovakia, the participants welcome the initiative of the Slovak delegation to host the next Meeting.
